AN IMPORTANT FRIENDLY REMINDER

If we want to be successful in keeping our verbal announcements ongoing at the beginning of our Sunday services, we're reminding all who make announcements to, please, keep them as short as possible. If there are more details to be shared about your announcements, please ask those interested to come speak with you further about your announcement sometime later.

Please limit your announcements only to events coming up within a month and a half.

You are always invited to submit your announcement details for inclusion in the newsletter. If necessary, you may also inquire if your information meets the importance of sending out a church blast which Deacon Debbie is happy to do, if it's needful.

Many thanks to you all for keeping us up, weekly, on upcoming events! We know for the majority that it's important for them to hear them. Your Clergy

WHAT DO ANGLICANS BELIEVE?

WE BELIEVE in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father, God
from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic (meaning God's true saved believers all over the world) and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WORSHIP & PRAISE

The Well's next new worship song, which we'll be introducing in about a month, is called "Rooftops." We'll sing the arrangement much differently than the video, but the melody of the song is what we want to learn from the YouTube version: Rooftops - Jesus Culture \(lyric video\)

SEARCH COMMITTEE UPDATE

The Search Committee plans to begin rector applicant zoom interviews within the next two weeks.

Please continue to pray for us to have the discernment of the Holy Spirit as we meet with the applicants. Pray that the one God has for us, rises to the top, and that we will all be unified in our discernment, because the Holy Spirit won't tell each of us, someone different. We just need to hear Him clearly.

SEARCH COMMITTEE ZOOM MEETINGS

Search Committee members, please set aside time on Wednesday, Oct. 22 at 6:00 p.m. for potential applicants zoom meetings at the church. Also, please set aside Saturday, Oct. 25th, from around noon to possibly zoom with any applicant overseas. (This one will be firmed up later.)

ANGLICANS BIBLICAL CHRISTIANS

Anglican Christians are first and foremost Biblical Christians.

We believe the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the “Word of God written.” The Holy Scriptures are the final authority in all matters of faith and practice.

As we pray the words of Jesus in the Lord's Prayer, the Scriptures are our "daily bread," which is our source of spiritual food for life and strength as well as our source of authority.

We believe that Scripture contains “all things necessary to salvation” and that it is a principle means of God’s ongoing, active work of grace among us.

Believing this with all our hearts, souls and minds, we press on daily to submit ourselves to the Holy Scriptures.

We desire for the application of the Scriptures to affect and change our daily lives as our minds are renewed by it, and as we cooperate with those Scriptures and the Holy Spirit, so that we will continue to become more like Christ, our Lord, being His lights of godly integrity in this dark world.

With the help of our precious Holy Spirit, we aim to “hear, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest” the words and teachings of the Scriptures as a part of our worship and daily prayer.

ANGLICANISM

THE BASICS

First and foremost, Anglicans are Christians. Globally, Anglicans form the third largest body of Christians in the world (around 80 million members).

ORIGINS OF THE NAME

The name “Anglican” is traced back to the ancient Anglo-Saxon tribes of Europe. The tribal name was spelled “Engles” or “Angles” and the tribe’s speech was the precursor to the English language. Their island became known as England, and their Christians were known as Anglicans. The name has nothing to do with “angels.”

THREE STREAMS

The Anglican ethos holds together three streams of the Christian Church. For those familiar with Church History, Dr. Les Fairfield provides a synopsis of the history that shapes its life today:

The Protestant movement recalled the 16th century Church to the primacy of the Word—written, read, preached, inwardly digested. The 18th century Holiness movement reminded the Church of God's love for the poor. The Anglo-Catholic movement re-grounded the Church in the sacramental life of worship. All three strands are grounded in the Gospel. Each one extrapolates the Gospel in a specific direction. No strand is dispensable. Other Christian bodies have often taken one strand to an extreme. By God's grace the Anglican tradition has held the streams in creative tension. This miracle of unity is a treasure worth keeping.

GLOBAL ANGLICANS

Just as the English language spread with the British empire, so did Anglican Christianity. When Anglicans resettled in new lands, they brought their personal faith with them. Chaplains and pastors were often among their number. Additionally, many Anglicans traveled as missionaries to share the Gospel. Consequently, Anglican churches now exist all over the world in more than 165 countries. As Anglican Christians became a global family, the demographics shifted dramatically. Christians from Britain, the United States, Canada, and Australia continue to play an important role. (ACNA Website)

ANGLICAN LITURGY

LITURGY definition: “a form or formulary according to which public religious worship, especially Christian worship, is conducted.”

ALL denominations have a liturgy. If a church has a bulletin (or even if not), and follows an order of service, that is a liturgy. For some reason many non-Anglican churches seem uncomfortable acknowledging that their church order of service is also liturgy by definition.

Liturgy, for gathering together and worship to our God, is simply expressed in different ways or forms in all the various denominations.

Anglicans are frequently identified by the WAY we worship, and that is understandable, because worship is central to the Anglican way of discipleship and fellowship.

Our worship is closest to the worship of the 1st Century Christian Church. We worship with a balance of the past, which is closest to the church's original worship, and our modern times.

Our worship or order of service is according to the liturgy of the Book of Common Prayer.

Each service, which includes many elements of worship, is designed for everyone to respond together as a unified community in our expressions:

- *Singing
- *Praise
- *Prayers
- *Preaching & reading of Scripture
- *Our faith declaration through the Creeds
- *Acknowledgement and Confession of sins
- *Recitation of Jesus' own words in "The Lord's Prayer"
- *Passing of the Peace
- *Celebration of Holy Communion
- *Blessings

We also engage in various Biblical postures:

- *Sitting *Standing *Kneeling
*Hands raised

Our worship follows a liturgical order that is at once:

- *both ancient and new
- *both corporate and personal
- *both reverent and joyful . . . and
- *sincerely HEARTFELT
